ABOUT FORT LAUDERDALE BEACH

As the world's attention continues to focus in on South Florida, today's Fort Lauderdale Beach is poised to become a new international capital of business, luxury, culture, and opportunity. Fueled by massive investment and development, the city is more than a carefree beach town with award-winning shorelines... it is the next major destination the world will be watching.

Already, more than $719 million is building the future of the nearby Fort Lauderdale International Airport. When complete, the new FLL will serve nearly 500,000 international flights per year with a new runway, expanded facilities, and more global routes. Similarly, Port Everglades is growing to accommodate even more cruise ship traffic as well as major cargo routes.

The three in-progress expansions have already contributed to thousands of new local jobs and will continue to support as many as 200,000 jobs throughout the State. Also on the horizon is All Aboard Florida – the new high-speed rail line that will connect Fort Lauderdale, Miami, Palm Beach, and Orlando with “minutes-away” convenience like never before. Groundbreaking for stations have begun, and will bring billions of dollars of business and tourism opportunities to all cities included as stations.

Everything planned for Fort Lauderdale Beach is a powerful statement for what the future holds for The Ocean Resort Residences as a landmark in connected living. The Fort Lauderdale International Airport and Port Everglades Cruise Terminals are both less than 20 minutes away. Hop on nearby I-95 or the Florida Turnpike, and Miami and Palm Beach are only 30 minutes away. By boat, the islands of the Bahamas are a short cruise away, as are other coastal cities along the Florida East Coast. Locally, the area's many winding canals, rivers, and waterways are ideal for sailing, boating, and yachting community. The city itself offers a smart mix of vintage architecture, contemporary culture, and leading-edge dining, live music and entertainment... from historic Las Olas Boulevard, to legendary A1A, to the oceanfront itself. The thriving Downtown Arts District includes The Broward Center for the Performing Arts, The Museum of Art Fort Lauderdale, FAT Village Arts District, the Museum of Discovery and Science, the Mark K. Wheeler Gallery, several live music venues, and relaxing waterfront parks. As well, many of the nation's top shopping destinations such as Sawgrass Mills Mall, The Galleria Mall, Aventura Mall, and The Bal Harbour Shops are just moments away.

The Ocean Resort Residences places all of this and much more right at your fingertips.
